Course Description:

As an introductory course, this course intends to cover fundamental concepts and theories used in microeconomic analysis. Economics provides a powerful way of thinking which helps you to understand many economic and social phenomena. I'll use many real world examples to enhance your learning. By studying how consumers and firms make decisions, you will understand how a market works to allocate resource into most valued uses. You will also learn when markets don't work and what some remedies are in that case.

Course Intended Learning Outcomes (Course ILOs)

Upon completion of this course, you will be able to:

1. Understand and apply theories on markets: including the market price determination, the efficiency and fairness of market system, the conditions under which markets can perform well, and how the market will change in responding to changing environment. (SILO 1, 4)
2. Understand the framework to address the role of government and able to apply it: when and in which direction the government should intervene the markets, also how to evaluate the impact of relevant government's policies on markets.(SILO 1, 4)
3. Understand consumers' optimal decision making and apply it. (SILO 1, 4)
4. Understand firms' optimal decision making under different market structure and apply it. (SILO 1, 4)

For the details of SILOs, please refer to:

Assessment Activities	Weighting	Course ILOs assessed
Best 5 of 6 homework assignments	25%	1,2,3,4,5
1 midterm exam	0% or 25%	1,2,3,4,5
1 final exam	50% or 75%	1,2,3,4,5

Your total score is based on the higher of the two weighting schemes:

Scheme 1: 25% HW + 20% Midterm +50% Final

Scheme 2: 25% HW + 75% Final

Assessment is based on detailed Topic intended learning outcomes, which will be provided at the end of each topic.

Midterm is scheduled on Oct. 18th, 2021 (Monday) 7:30pm-9:30pm. The lecture on that day is cancelled unless you're informed otherwise later.

There is no make-up for the midterm exam. If you miss the final exam with valid reason, you'll have a make-up exam scheduled within 24 hours of the missed final. Sick-leave notice must be issued before the exam time, if any.

All students in Hong Kong must take exams in person.

You will be given 6 homework assignments during the semester via Canvas. Late homework will NOT be accepted. Only best 5 of the 6 homework assignments will be counted towards your grade. Homework is not graded precisely. As long as you submitted the homework and got most of the questions correctly, you will receive the full marks for that homework. Copying of others' homework is cheating and will be reported to the school and subject to formal investigation.

Please check website for your grade of homework assignments and midterm as soon as you get them back. Any discrepancy should be reported to TA within 1 week from the date of returning your assignments and midterm. Late complaints will not be entertained.

Academic Integrity

Please read the information on academic integrity carefully and follow the instruction: <http://ugadmin.ust.hk/integrity/student-1.html> . You should be familiar with Academic Honor Code and the content on Academic Integrity website.

I try my best to make the course requirement as clear as possible. When you have any question and when you encounter any difficulty in studying, please do not hesitate to consult me either in or out of class throughout the semester. I'd be delighted to help you succeed in the course. Please remember that ultimately it is you who are responsible for your performance in the course. It is that you earn the grade, not I give you the grade! You know what grade you need to earn (or want to earn) for graduation, scholarships, exchange opportunities, honors, etc. So, when the grade is out, one thing that I absolutely will NOT do is to change your grade because what you want (need) is different from what you get.
